ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY

An Illustrated Monthly Magazine

has completed its first two volumes and has already won for itself an enviable place in the magazine world. Started by the Archaeological Institute primarily for its lay members, it has already gained a considerable circle of admiring and appreciative readers in the whole field of art and letters.

The purpose of ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY is to give people in an interesting and attractive way the information they wish to have in the wide realm embraced by its name. This information is imparted by interesting reading matter prepared by men and women who are masters in their several fields and by beautiful pictures produced by approved modern processes. Human interest, timeliness, and literary merit are the tests applied in the selection of articles, and artistic quality and appropriateness are the standards in the selection of illustrations.

The contributed articles are of varied interest, embracing the fields of Oriental, Greek, Roman, Christian, Renaissance, and American archaeology and art. Full page illustrations are made an attractive feature. Notes from the various fields and brief paragraphs concerning archaeological discoveries, new books, and other items of current interest are worthy of mention.

The editorial Staff of ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY is as follows:

General Editor: DAVID MOORE ROBINSON, Johns Hopkins University.

Art Editor: WILLIAM H. HOLMES, Smithsonian Institution.
